

Other activities

Maybe scaring yourself out of your wits or working up a sweat just isn't your thing. Glencoe is a very relaxing place to be with stunning views and plenty of places to relax and take in your surroundings.

We are lucky enough to have some great cafes and restaurants, see the food and drink page of our website for more information.

Golf

Ballachulish boast a lovely 9 hole golf course at the Dragons Tooth in Glenachulish (just 5 minutes towards Oban from the Ballachulish Bridge. It's pay and play and you can book a tee off time on 01855 811695 or just turn up.

There is another golf course just north of Fort William.

Photography

Glencoe and surrounding area are world class for photographers and the area now has a dedicated Photography Safari company, Glencoe Photography. They offer half and full day safaris as well as 1-to-1 tuition. Cameras are provided and you get to keep a CD of your images at the end of the day. Karl also sells his images in the Ballachulish Visitor Centre and Glencoe Café where they are displayed. He has a great talent for making some great photos if you fancy a family photo shoot while away and he also has a studio in Ballachulish.

Land Rover Safaris

The National trust for Scotland visitor centre in Glencoe has several land rover safaris operating each week. These last 3 hours and some are adapted for children, to take in the massacre history. Booking is essential.
